Wedding Ceremony:

If you wish to get married in Herm, we can offer a range of options for religious and civil ceremonies.

It is likely that, by 2020, laws will have changed to allow legal civil ceremonies at your choice of location (including beaches) as long as they are presided over by a celebrant.

St Tugual's Chapel

- £750 hire charge
- Seats 70, covered additional space can be arranged in the Chapel garden
- Licensed for religious ceremonies, you must arrange the date with the Dean of Guernsey

Herm beaches

- £3,000 - £10,000 (varies based on requirements for transport and setup)
- Seats can be arranged for up to 100 people

Hotel lawns

- £500 - £5,000 (varies based on requirements)
- Views towards Guernsey & close proximity to the reception venue

Celebrant - £800

The Afternoon 'interval':

If a change of setup is involved between your Wedding meal and evening entertainment, an interval will be required to reset the marquee. If this is not required, you are welcome to stay and enjoy the bar and facilities.

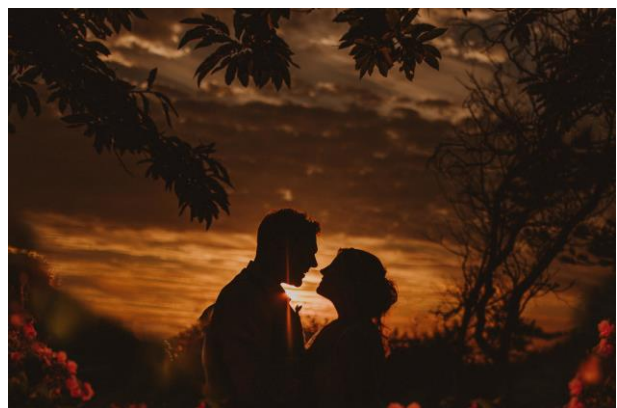

- Hotel beach (not available exclusively)
  - Beach games
  - Very close proximity to the hotel
  - No bar available
- The Ship Inn (Exclusive use available from £1000 from 3pm-6pm)
  - Bar open all day
  - Attached to the hotel
- The Mermaid Tavern (not available exclusively)
  - Bar open all day
  - Apart from the hotel if a break is required

Evening Celebrations:

The marquee is the only venue available for an evening reception at the hotel in high season. Exclusive use of the entire hotel is available in low/mid-season, further details are available on enquiry.

- Band/DJ/custom lighting available from outside sources
- Bar can be stocked with your favourite drinks
- A pre-purchased account can be placed behind the bar - cards are accepted
- Music must finish by 10.30pm

Getting home or accommodation:

The last boat departs for Guernsey at 10.45pm

Accommodation is available at the hotel or island cottages.

- 40 rooms at The White House Hotel - rates available on request
- Cottage / self-catering accommodation also available for your guests

All prices valid for 2020 and may be altered for following seasons
