SEAGULL CAMPSITE

Herm Island is a magical place, where memories are made amidst beautiful scenery, on soft white sands and in crystal-clear waters. Seagull Village Campsite is in the middle of the island just minutes from the cliff path leading to Belvoir Bay. The campsite shower and toilet facilities were recently refurbished, and a designated on-site warden will help ensure your holiday is as enjoyable and carefree as possible. An onsite grocery shop offers a pre-order facility ready for your arrival and is open daily for you to stock up on provisions during your stay. The main island hostelry, the Mermaid Tavern caters for large groups and has a cheerful, informal atmosphere suitable for all ages. Herm Island offers a safe, clean environment to explore.

ENJOY A RANGE OF ISLAND ACTIVITIES

HERM'S NATURE TRIAL

Sponsored by Specsavers

Immerse yourself in the incredible natural environment of Herm by enjoying our fantastic nature trail. Six nature trail boards located around the island provide a wealth of information on the abundant and unique wildlife of Herm's exceptional ecosystem, and a fun and educational resource for adults and children. Pick up a quiz sheet from the Herm Shop and follow either a shorter route or the full trail to answer the questions. Bring your completed quiz back to the shop for the answer sheet and a Nature Trail Certificate!

Herm Island is a not-for-profit business offering multi-generational holidays in an idyllic island setting, with a variety of accommodation options in our hotel, self-catering cottages and campsite. All income is ploughed back into the island to support its upkeep, refurbishment and ongoing improvement of facilities and services. We look forward to welcoming you to enjoy the magic of Herm Island and thank you for your support. Located 3 miles from Guernsey in the Channel Islands, there are regular daily flights from most UK airports or with Condor Ferries from Poole or Portsmouth. From Guernsey, Herm is then a short 20-minute ferry journey with Herm Travel Trident who operate a regular year-round daily service - www.traveltrident.com
